

MY HUSBAND IS:

My husband is made in God's image and is like Him in character (Gen 1:26). He is careful whom he associates with because his delight is in the Word which he meditates and thinks in line with. Everything he does prospers because of it (Ps 1:1-3). God orders his steps because my husband makes the Lord his trust (Ps 37:23, Ps 40:4).

Because he guides his affairs with discretion and shows favor he has the ability and the heart to lend. Nothing shakes him. No matter what news or report, his heart is fixed (Ps 112:5-7). He is constantly open to learn more from wise counsel (prov 1:5) and is full of joy because of the wisdom and understanding he has found (prov 3:13). What a compassionate and tender spirit he has towards living things (prov 12:10) and the things he has acquired are precious to him (prov 12:27). My husband has obtained wealth and we will leave an inheritance to generations (prov 13:22). He is blessed and desires to be a blessing. (Gen 12:3)

His mouth is filled with the good fruit of productive words (prov 12:14). The timing of his answer and of his words is perfect for the situation (prov 14:16). He is perceptive to what others are trying to say, but answers slowly, with wisdom and much thought so that he is not angered easily (James 1:19). He is in control of his emotions and chooses to over look others transgressions (prov 19:11). My husband walks in his integrity and our whole family is blessed because of him (prov 20:7).

(James 1:5-8) If he needs wisdom, he asks our generous God, and He will give it to him. God will not rebuke him for asking. But when my husband asks Him, he will receive God's wisdom and will be sure that his faith is in God alone. My husband will not waver, for a person with divided loyalty is as unsettled as a wave of the sea that is blown and tossed by the wind. Such people should not expect to receive anything from the Lord. Their loyalty is divided between God and the world, and they are unstable in everything they do.

(Phil 4:6-9) We will not worry about anything; instead, we will pray about everything. We will tell God what we need, and thank him for all he has done. Then we will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard our hearts and minds as we live in Christ Jesus. We will fix our thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise. And we will keep putting into practice all we have learned and received. Then the God of peace will be with us.

(Phil 4:12- We know how to live on almost nothing or with everything. We have learned the secret of living in every situation, whether it is with a full stomach or empty, with plenty or little. For we can do everything through Christ, who gives us strength.

(Ps 119:105) God's word is a lamp to guide our feet and a light for our path.

(Ps 5:11-12) My husband puts his trust in you. You are defending him. You fill him with your happiness. For you bless the godly man, O Lord; you protect him with your shield of love.

(Ps 146:5-) My husband is happy because he has the Lord as his helper and his hope is in his God.

(Isa 50:4-6) The Lord God has given my husband His words of wisdom so that he may know what he should say to all the weary ones. Morning by morning he wakens him and opens his understanding to His will. The Lord God has spoken to him, and he is listening; He will not rebel nor turn away.

(2 Tim 1:7) For God hath not given my husband the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.
